POLICE PURSUIT IN MAIN STREET

LEIGH PAYS $100 FOR FAST DRIVING

Much Excitement When Officers Chase and Catch Two Men Wanted for Larceny.

Considerable excitement was created in Main Street, between Nineteenth and Twenty-second, yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, when two fugitives were chased and caught by Detective Sergeants Wiltshire and Bailey and Patrolman Kuhn.

The officers were standing at Nineteenth and Main Streets when William Butler, twenty-one years old, a horse-shoer, and Clarence Howershell, twenty, a painter, both of whom were wanted on a larceny charge, passed. They saw the policemen before the latter recognized them, and at once took to their heels. Butler and Kuhn started in quick pursuit, and the two men were overtaken and collared at Twenty-second Street. Many citizens joined in the chase, but their services were not required.

Butler and Howershell, who were locked up at the First Police Station, are alleged to have robbed W. R. Netherly of $25.

Last night Butler was identified by W. D. Turner and D. E. Perkins as the man who had assaulted and robbed a crowd of prisoners who were brought from their cells. Turner says he was robbed of $20 on September 13 by Butler and Perkins, and that he was knocked him down and took $25 from him on September 6. Perkins said that Butler struck him a heavy blow in the face, knocking him to the ground. These additional charges will be lodged against Butler.

CLAIM CONSTABLE

ACCEPTED BRIBE

Henrico Grand Jury Investigating Charge That Leo Kidd Was Released by Officer.

TRUE BILLS ARE RETURNED

Criminal Term of Henrico Circuit Court Convenes and Will End Its Work This Week.

Asserting that Constable Joseph P. Tinsley, of Henrico County, had received a certain sum of money to release Leo Kidd, whom he is said to have lawfully arrested, the grand jury in Henrico Circuit Court yesterday returned a true bill against the constable for a misdemeanor. Several persons, two of whom reported the alleged circumstances to Deputy Sheriff Webb W. Snyder, were called before the grand jury to tell what they knew of the matter, and in order to summon more witnesses, the investigation was postponed until Thursday morning.

The alleged bribe, it was said, had been made about a month ago at the home of Otto Harris, colored, near Greenwood Station, on the Richmond and Chesapeake Bay Line, where, with a party of young men and women, a party of young men and women were eating chicken supper. Members of the party, it was said, were arrested by Constable Tinsley, and that the party took place at the place, and that Constable Tinsley, and the other three other men, went there and arrested them, is admitted by Harris and his wife.

Presentment Is Strong.
The presentment made before the grand jury at that time, it was said, did "receive from one" a certain sum of money and other things of value, the nature and amount of which are to the grand jurors unknown for omitting and delaying to carry to jail the said Leo Kidd, and for failing to return a true bill against him, and for failing to return a true bill against the said Leo Kidd, who was a constable of the county, and an officer, authorized to serve legal process, did then and there receive from one, a certain sum of money and other things of value, and carry the said Leo Kidd to jail, but voluntarily suffered said prisoner to escape and go from his custody.

The investigation will be resumed on Thursday morning, when other witnesses will be called. Constable Tinsley was not present yesterday morning when the case was called. One of his bondsmen, Charles R. Anderson, in his application yesterday before Judge Scott to be relieved from further responsibility.

True Bills Returned.

True bills were found yesterday against the following, and dates for their trial set:

Joe Bland, colored, a chauffeur, appealing from a ten-day jail sentence for speeding, will be arraigned at the next term of the court, owing to the absence of material witnesses.

Judge Scott yesterday appointed W. W. Beverly to act as assessor for Aubrey Barker, who, it was shown, was unable to employ counsel.

WANT DEBT SETTLED

Virginia Will Ask Supreme Court for Judgment.

Attorney-General Samuel W. Williams will appear before the Supreme Court of the United States to-day, asking that court to enter such an order as would compel the State of Virginia to pay a proper settlement of the State debt matter. Formal notice that this step would be taken was given yesterday by the Attorney-General of West Virginia.

More than a year ago the United States Supreme Court rendered its decision in Virginia in regard to the principal of the debt, something more than $7,000,000. The State of West Virginia, States get together and compromise the interest. West Virginia, it is asserted, has since shown no disposition either to propose a settlement of the principal or a compromise of the interest. The two States have been in the hands of the two States having been without effect, as the West Virginia Commission has refused to propose. Having failed, therefore, to propose, amicable adjustment, it is the purpose of Virginia to take the matter to the Supreme Court of the United States for settlement of principal and interest.

WANT TO RESERVE THEIR IDENTITY

Officers of Blues' Battalion Will Resist Effort to Assign It to Regiment.

HAS RIGHTS UNDER DICK LAW

Major Martin's Proposal Not Accepted With Favor by Local Command.

Contrary to the opinion of Major Stanley W. Martin, of Lynchburg, that the Richmond Light Infantry Blues Battalion has no right to exist under the Dick law, it was pointed out yesterday by officers of the local organization that its right to exist as a separate battalion is especially provided for in the Dick law. A charter from the State also gives the Blues' Battalion the right to exist as a separate military organization, and only the Governor of the State may assign it to any regiment. This could be accomplished by legislative action.

The Dick law provides that any military organization which existed prior to 1912 may retain the ancient rights, privileges and distinction. The Blues' Battalion was organized in 1789, and has been in continuous existence ever since.

Shy Five Companies.
The First Brigade, Virginia Volunteers, is shy five companies, and unless the three regiments are brought up to their full complement the Federal appropriation for their maintenance will be withdrawn. The State military authorities are now trying to organize five companies, and find it was Major Martin's idea. It would not be necessary if the Blues' Battalion were brought up to its full complement. It is believed by some of the authorities that some of the companies which have been mustered out of the Blues' Battalion, and that the difficulty could be overcome. The Blues' Battalion, its friends say, would not care to lose its identity in regimental assignment, and would resist any effort to make it lose its identity.

Major E. W. Bowles said last night that he did not care to make any statement in regard to the proposal of Major Martin.

WOMEN TO WORK FOR HOME TO-DAY

Buttons With Bars and Stars on Sale for Confederate Institution.

The little starred and barred button of the Home for Confederate Veterans, Women, absent from the coat lapels of warfayers for a full round year, on August 1, 1913, will be sold to the benefit of the institution at 142 Grace Street, which cares for the Confederate veterans, their widows and their families.

The button will be on sale to-day on every street corner in the business district, and on many corners in the city's outskirts. Stations will be maintained by the principal shops and at the railway terminals.

The little army of women and girls in charge of the stations goes on duty at an early hour this morning and stays on duty until the 6 o'clock cross-town cars begin taking commuters back to their homes. There is no fixed price for the button, but few will go home without the emblem of the home on their lapels.

Given only slight support by the city and the State, the Home for Confederate Veterans, Women, is on a precarious financial basis. It is necessary once a year to appeal to the public for the help which it never fails to receive. The Home is on a precarious financial basis.
